FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Chase Opens Branch in Montgomery

Montgomery, Illinois – February 20, 2009 – The Montgomery Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) joins with the Montgomery Area Chamber of Commerce (GMACC) and Village of Montgomery in a ribbon cutting ceremony to welcome Chase Bank to Montgomery, located at 2101 Orchard Road.

Montgomery Village Trustees Pete Heinz and Denny Lee welcomed Chase to Montgomery and wished them success at their prominent location along the Orchard Road corridor.

The new Montgomery branch features three drive-thru lanes, two ATM's, financial advisor and loan officer on staff, and a full suite of personal and business banking products.

In 2000, J.P. Morgan & Co. merged with Chase Manhattan Corp, in effect combining four of the largest and oldest money center banking institutions in New York City (J.P. Morgan, Chase, Chemical and Manufacturers Hanover) into one firm called J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. In July 2004, another merger with Bank One Corp. resulted in the name JPMorgan Chase & Co. With retail financial services and commercial banking headquarters located in Chicago, its corporate headquarters is in New York City.

MEDC Executive Director, Amy Furfori, said "We are happy to welcome Chase to Montgomery and look forward to working with them."
