

(Pictured from left to right: Illinois Credit Union League Vice President of Regional Management Ron Culen, Vice President Richard Kish, Supervisory Committee Chairperson Leonard Nelson, Branch Manager Doug Williams, President and CEO Libby Calderone, Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors James Burkiewicz, Village of Montgomery President Marilyn Michelini, Village Trustees Denny Lee and Pete Heinz.)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Earthmover Credit Union Hold Ribbon Cutting

Montgomery, Illinois – February 5, 2009 – Earthmover Credit Union (ECU) recently joined with the Montgomery Economic Development Corporation (MEDC), Greater Montgomery Area Chamber of Commerce (GMACC), and Village of Montgomery in a ribbon cutting ceremony for their new full-service branch in Montgomery, located at 1260 Ogden Avenue near the intersection of Route 34 and Hill Avenue in the Ogden Hill Shopping Center.

ECU's newest branch features four teller stations, personal banking offices, three drive-up lanes, and a drive-up ATM. The building is a brick and stucco structure with a "Midwestern prairie-style" which is similar to the Earthmover facility in Yorkville. It's designed to accommodate for the banking needs of the local community. The branch is operated by Earthmover's Montgomery banking team, which includes Branch Manager Doug Williams; Assistant Branch Manager Brett Spang; Financial Service Representatives Mario Chavez and Jessie Plock; and Member Service Representatives Kathy Hart and Caleb Woodford.

Earthmover's President and CEO Libby Calderone stated, "We at Earthmover are very pleased to continue the enhancement of our branch network via the new full service Montgomery branch. These are exciting times for us and we look forward to growing with the local communities and best serving their banking needs."

Montgomery Village President Marilyn Michelini, said "I am very excited that Earthmover has chosen this location at Ogden Hill. It's a beautiful building and I hope that with their growing name in the community, they can interest many others with all of the services they have to offer."

MEDC Executive Director Amy Furfori, said "Earthmover Credit Union has been a great contributor, supporting economic development and the existing Montgomery business base, with their contributions of time and funding to the Montgomery Economic Development Corporation (MEDC), the chamber and other community needs."

Those who participated in the ribbon cutting were (from left to right): Illinois Credit Union League Vice President of Regional Management Ron Culen; Earthmover's Vice President Richard Kish; Supervisory Committee Chairperson Leonard Nelson; Montgomery Branch Manager Doug Williams; President and CEO Libby Calderone; Vice Chairperson James Burkiewicz; Montgomery Village President Marilyn Michelini; and Montgomery Village Trustees Denny Lee and Pete Heinz.

Earthmover Credit Union is a not-for-profit full-service banking institution that has been serving its members for 50 years. Membership is available to anyone living or working in one of the following counties: Kendall, Kane, DuPage, Will (north of I-80), LaSalle (north of I-80), DeKalb (south of I-88). As a not-for-profit organization, Earthmover returns its earnings to its members through lower loan rates, higher savings rates, lower fees, and more. ECU currently provides banking services to over 25,000 members at its seven branch offices, which are located in Montgomery, Oswego, Aurora, North Aurora, Yorkville, and Sandwich. For more information, please contact Earthmover Credit Union at 800.844.2ECU or log onto www.earthmovercu.com.

U or log onto www.earthmovercu.com.
