FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: April 9, 2015

MEDC announces and welcomes New Executive Board Member, Jason Hanson from Castle Bank, in Yorkville.

Montgomery, IL On April 8, 2015 at the MEDC Board meeting:

The Montgomery Economic Development Corporation (MEDC) approved the resignation of Craig McQuade from Castle Bank, and welcomed Jason Hanson as his replacement.

Jason Hanson is a business banking advisor at Castle Bank in Yorkville and Oswego. Jason has been with Castle Bank for 18 years, holding a variety of positions. In his current role he serves the loan and cash management needs of small business owners within Yorkville, Oswego and Montgomery. He has enjoyed watching the steady growth of our communities and looks forward to working with the MEDC. Jason has been involved in many community organizations including the Yorkville Chamber of Commerce and the Yorkville Sports Boosters. Jason attended Yorkville High School and graduated from Northern Illinois University. Jason lives in Yorkville with his wife Colleen and their three children, Tyler, Logan and Meghan.

Congratulations Jason, and welcome aboard.

Castle Bank was founded in 1856 and is a division of First National Bank of Nebraska; the largest privately held financial institution in the United States. The bank recently received the Best Banks in America designation by Forbes for the fourth year in a row. Castle Bank has 14 banking offices located in DeKalb, Kendall, Kane, Boone and McHenry Counties in North central Illinois.
